Blue Warrant:

- If you do not intend to 'freedom camp' or have a vehicle with a portable toilet a blue warrant indicates that your vehicle is self-contained.
- For camping on private and commercial host properties.
- For camping at public and club events.
- Anywhere a payment of koha is required.
- Campsites (free or paid) where 'all' campers are welcome or designated for non self-contained vehicles under the Freedom Camping Act.
- There are minimum requirements for water and waste storage.

Green Warrant:

- If you 'freedom camp' a Green warrant indicates that your vehicle is self-contained.
- It allows you to freedom camp on any council managed land and 'LINZ' land that is not designated as excluding camping.
- Your vehicle must have a toilet that is permanently fitted and can be used in the vehicle.
- You have considerable flexibility in design as fixed bedding is not a requirement.
- If you rent your vehicle you will need a green certificate.
- There is a $120 levy payable to the Plumbers, Gasfitters and Drainlayers Board.
